

The Turning Point

2 Corinthians 5:17

^{5:17}Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

Every Person Jesus Met Had a Turning Point in His or Her Life

For Zacchaeus, it was the day he sold out.

For the woman brought to Jesus, it was the day she gave in.

For Simon Peter, it was the day he failed Jesus.

You Have a Turning Point that is Setting the Course of Your Life

The day you sold out.

The day you gave in.

The day you failed Jesus.

The day someone hurt you.

The day someone you loved walked out on you.

The day you took that first drink.

The day a tragedy struck your life and all but destroyed you.

This Moment with Jesus Christ Can Become the New Turning Point of Your Life

Zacchaeus experienced a new turning point when he met the man who loved him as a son of Abraham.

(Luke 19:5) When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today."

(Luke 19:9) "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham."

The woman caught in adultery experienced a new turning point when Jesus forgave her and called her to leave her life of sin.

(John 8:11b) "Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Go now and leave your life of sin."

Simon Peter experienced a new turning point when Jesus allowed him to renew his love and return to his ministry.

(John 21:16) Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."

(2 Corinthians 5:17) Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

Jesus wants the turning point of your life to be the moment that you see how lost you are without Him and experience His saving love.

This moment can be the turning point of your life.
