

How to Stay Out of Argentina

WATCH YOUR ATTITUDE

(Hebrews 13:4) Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral.

Take an active, not a passive attitude toward your marriage.

Ask yourself “What does my spouse need from our marriage? What have I done today to meet those needs?”

Keep your courtship going.

Know the difference between trusting your spouse and taking your spouse for granted.

Face conflict instead of avoiding it.

GUARD YOUR HEART

(Proverbs 4:23) Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.

Don't take your cues from our culture.

Know that infidelity is emotional long before it becomes physical.

Don't share thoughts and feelings with a member of the opposite sex that you're not sharing with your spouse.

Beware of an internet affair.

DO THE RIGHT THING

(1 Corinthians 10:13b) But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

Don't let innocent attraction lead to sinful action.

Avoid situations in which infidelity can happen.

Discover the unmet need behind your attraction and commit yourself to meeting that need within your marriage.

WELCOME THE WONDERFUL COUNSELOR INTO YOUR MARRIAGE

(Ecclesiastes 4:12b) A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Your spouse can't make you happy.

The love you've received is the love you'll give.

Two people grow closer to each other by growing closer to God.
