

Life's Greatest Discoveries: You Can Know the End of the Story

Because I know that life's junk will be left behind, I'll live for what matters.

(1 Corinthians 3:11-13) For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, 13 his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work.

Because I know that I'll be audited, I will live as God's accountable servant.

(Romans 14:12) So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Because I know that God will make me like Jesus, I'll trust His purpose in all things.

(1 John 3:2b) ...we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

(Romans 8:29) God knew what he was doing from the very beginning. He decided from the outset to shape the lives of those who love him along the same lines as the life of his Son.

Because I know that I'll shed my last tear, I'll live in joy.

(Psalm 30:5) Weeping may go on all night, but joy comes with the morning.

(Revelation 21:4) He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.

If you know Jesus, you know the end of your life's story today.

(2 Timothy 1:12b)... I know the one in whom I trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him until the day of his return.
