

Make a You Turn with the Church

From “Got to” to “Get to”

(Psalm 122:1) I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD."

If you have no desire to worship Jesus, then you need to ask yourself if you really know Him.

From Going to Church to Being the Church

(1 Corinthians 12:27) Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.

Church is not a place we visit on Sunday; church is who we are every day.

From Taker to Giver

(Hebrews 5:12) In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food!

From Critic to Cheerleader

(James 4:11) Don't speak evil against each other, my dear brothers and sisters. If you criticize each other and condemn each other, then you are criticizing and condemning God's law. But you are not a judge who can decide whether the law is right or wrong. Your job is to obey it.

The only person you can really talk about is yourself.

(Hebrews 10:24) And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.

From Excused to Called

(John 21:21-22) When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?" Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me."

No one else matters when Jesus calls you to follow Him.
