This Sunday:
*Why Do People
(Especially Good People)
Suffer?*

How Has Making Change Touched Your Life?

Many of our people have told me that our study of Christian stewardship, Making Change, has taught them new truths and led them to a deeper commitment to support God's work. I'd like to hear from you. If Making Change has changed your life, write to me at DVaughan@bereafbc.org.

Celebration Singers on Spring Tour

Our Celebration Singers will be away on their Spring Tour this weekend. While away, the group will be singing at the Old Savannah City Mission, which is a facility for homeless women and children and for the Garden City Baptist Church in Savannah. The group asks for your prayers as they travel and share their message in music.

OPERATION LOVE FROM HOME

Gifts of Love to Support our Troops

INTERNATIONAL MISSION BOARD

ESTABLISHES

JAPAN RESPONSE FUND

In response to the overwhelming tragedy that has struck the nation of Japan, the International Mission Board has established a Japan Response Fund. Every penny given to this fund will be used to purchase relief supplies to be distributed to the Japanese people by our IMB missionaries and mission volunteers. You may contribute to this fund through our church. Make your check to Berea First Baptist Church and designate your gift to the Japan Relief Fund. We will forward your gifts to the IMB as we receive them.
