Message by Sonny Eppes

This Sunday at Berea First Baptist Church

Public Service Day

10:30 a.m.

As our nation approaches the tenth anniversary of the terrorist attacks on September 11, Berea First Baptist Church would like to give thanks for the courage and commitment we saw on that day as firefighters, law enforcement officers, and emergency service workers faced danger and even death on behalf of their fellow citizens. We want to remember and give thanks for the spirit of public service that made us proud and gave us hope.

This Sunday we will observe Public Service Day. If you serve in any area of public service, we invite you to attend this time of worship. We want all of our public servants to process into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service to be recognized and honored. Please wear your uniform if possible.

A Candlelight Service of Honor and Blessing

6:00 p.m.

In the Sanctuary

We continue to honor our heroes as we ask for God's blessings upon those who keep us safe and secure. This brief service will give you the opportunity to light a candle for a family member or friend who serves as a first responder, or in any branch of the armed services. You will be asked to call their name as the candle is lit. Dr. Sargent will bring a devotional thought and offer a prayer of protection for our loved ones.
