Message by Rev. Rick Fisher

"The Highway of Holiness"

Over the past weeks, we have considered the character marks of a life that is pursuing holiness. We have talked about a love for the Word of God, a fear/respect/honor of God, and a reverence for the Name and Person of Jesus. Another crucial mark of being more wholly committed to knowing God's mind/heart and to reflecting the character of Jesus in "holy living" is that we must understand and deal with the issue of personal sin. While we can never lead a completely blameless, sinless life, we can, through daily confession and cleansing, move farther and farther away from intentional sin to enjoy the fullness of God's presence in our lives.

Message by Rev. Rick Fisher

"Prayer That Transforms Your Life"

A transformed prayer life is an intentionally biblically balanced prayer life with each aspect of the prayer relationship having a unique role in developing and maintaining our relationship with Christ. Thus, it is essential that we have a solid understanding of the aspects of a balanced prayer life and what each one means. That will be the goal of our time together Sunday evening.

The Souper Bowl of Caring is an emphasis that takes our nation's interest in a football game and transforms it into concern for the hungry. On February 5, Super Bowl Sunday, our students will be at the doors with large soup pots to receive donations from us as we leave both morning worship services. These funds will be used by our church's Reaching Center to purchase food for families in need in our community. Let's fill the soup pots with support so that we can fill the stomachs and hearts of people who need help in the spirit of Christ.
