Weekend with Dr. James Banks

2022 Prayer Conference

February 26-27

James Banks is a best-selling author and speaker best known for his work helping others learn how to pray. He and his wife Cari have been married over 28 years and have two adult children. They make their home in Durham, North Carolina, where James serves as a pastor, church-planter and part-time seminary professor. James is also the author of several books on prayer and outreach and is a regular guest on radio and television. His work encourages prayer on Biblical foundations. He especially has a heart for helping parents pray for prodigal children.

Saturday Evening at 6:30
